CLAIM

MLR Institute of Technology has student welfare methods to establish and maintain a holistic environment for students, with the goal of developing a responsive and accountable attitude among all stakeholders of the institution. Institute has a Grievance Redressal Committee, Anti-Ragging and Disciplinary Committee that follows and adapts the Supreme Court's directions to guarantee that ragging is not tolerated. The Institute also has Women Protection Cell for the avoidance of sexual harassment and also create awareness on gender equality, social and cultural constructs in society. These committees meet on a regular basis and address the various grievances of the students.
