Report on

“Ganesh Chaturthi: Making eco-friendly Ganesh Idols”

Objective:

- 1) To promote equanimity and godliness in the students by participating in making of eco-friendly Ganesh Idols.
- 2) To bring students of all religions and communities together, to strengthen their bonds.

Description:

Ganesh Chaturthi is also called as “Vinayaka Chaviti” which is an important festival to Hindu community. It is celebrated as the birthday of Lord Ganesh, son of Lord Shiva and Goddess Parvati. Lord Ganesh is considered as the symbol of wisdom, prosperity, and good fortune, who receives the first pooja in all ritual activities of the Hindu community.

The members of CAME club, MLRIT organized this beautiful event where students were assembled outside MG Block. Students have participated in Eco-Friendly Ganesh Idols making competition. Most of the Ganesh Idols were excellent and competent to each other and very difficult to judge the winners. The program has observed overwhelming response from the students of not just Hinduism but other religions too.

Report on

“Telugu Bhasha Dinotsavam - Importance and Protection of Telugu Language”

Objective:

To recognize and promote linguistic and cultural diversity, and multilingualism in the campus.

Description:

Telugu is one of the oldest and most widely spoken languages in India. It is the official language for the states of Andhra Pradesh and Telangana, and is also spoken in the parts of Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, and Odisha. Telugu has a rich literary tradition dating back to the 11th century. Some of the finest works of Telugu literature include the "Mahabharata" and the "Ramayana."

The members of Literati Club, MLRIT have organized Telugu Basha Dinotsavam. On the day, students actively participated in delivering the importance and protection of Telugu language. The students participated in the event very actively to showcase their linguistic talents and writing skills. The program was concluded by giving gifts to the winners of the programme.

Report on

“Floral Bathukamma: Making & Playing”

Objective:

To promote awareness about interstate festivals and cultures among the students of all communities, by encouraging in making of Bathukamma celebrations.

Description:

Bathukamma festival is celebrated in Telangana and some of the places of Andhra Pradesh. In Telugu, the ‘Bathuku’ means life and the ‘Amma’ means mother. Together, the term Bathukamma means “Life of mother”. It is celebrated with the idols of Goddess Parvathi by calling her to come back to original life.

The members of CAME club, MLRIT organized this unique festival of flowers of Telangana “Bathukamma” in the campus. On the day, student teams have prepared Floral Bathukammas with different flowers. All the prepared Bathukammas were brought to the designated premises, girl students have gathered around in a circle and worshiped them by singing Bathukamma songs.

Towards the end, all the bathukammas were immersed in the water as a sign of saying bye. Sweets were distributed among the students and that concludes the festival. During the function, our beloved secretary, Shri. Marri Rajashekar Reddy graced with his family and participated in the celebrations. Gifts were distributed to the teams who prepared best bathukammas.

Report on

“Diwali Festival: Preparation of Colourful Diyas”

Objective:

To promote creativity and harmony among the students of all communities by participating in making of colourful diyas on the eve of Diwali festival in the campus.

Description:

The members of CAME club, MLRIT organized this beautiful event where students have assembled near MG Block to participate in “preparation of colourful diyas” activity. Most of the prepared diyas were colourful and competent to each other and very difficult to judge or comment in a relative manner. The program has observed overwhelming response from the students of all communities. Sweets were distributed among the students and staff and that concludes the festival.

“Traditional Day –An Ethnic Wear Event”

Objective:

To create awareness on various cultures and to promote cultural harmony and traditional values among the students.

Description:

The members of CAME club, MLRIT organized this beautiful event to promote ‘unity in diversity’ in the campus. The program has observed overwhelming response from the students. It is observed as a celebration of India’s diverse culture. It’s a day designated for students and staff to come in traditional attire from their home state, or specific culture of their choice(s). The event was initiated with lightening of lamp by our Secretary and Principal along with Head of the Departments followed by a prayer song on Lord Ganesha. Then, our Secretary and Principal addressed the student gathering and quoted the richness of Indian cultures and traditions. Our vice-principal, Dr. Radhika Devi also gave a speech, on this occasion.

The celebrations were followed by cultural programs where students from all the departments had a blast showing their talents on the stage which included dances and skits on our tradition. Students were completely in their high traditional competitive spirit. Their inner creativity and potentialities were driven through these traditional programs. During the function, our beloved secretary, Shri. Marri Rajashekar Reddy graced with his family and participated in the celebrations. Gifts were distributed to the winners of best traditional attires.
